Game Name - GCD

High Concept

DEX, CON, and WIS are generally considered "strong" saves, while STR, INT, and CHA are "weak" saves.

Gameplay Summary

DEX, CON, and WIS are generally considered "strong" saves, while STR, INT, and CHA are "weak" saves. That isn't based on their relative strength, but on the frequency of effects which trigger each save. You can notice that every class starts with a proficiency in one "strong" and one "weak" save.

Look and Feel

DEX, CON, and WIS are generally considered "strong" saves, while STR, INT, and CHA are "weak" saves. That isn't based on their relative strength, but on the frequency of effects which trigger each save. You can notice that every class starts with a proficiency in one "strong" and one "weak" save.
